Part C. - Candidate's Qualifications for Induction

In addition to working in the cable industry for at least 20 years, a candidate's qualifications for induction will be assessed in four areas of experience and expertise. As the sponsor, please provide information describing how your candidate's activities reflect these standards:

1. Responsibilities:

Has the candidate held responsible positions within our industry?

We're looking for candidates who have had successful, responsible careers in the cable industry. Qualifying examples would include (but are not limited to) those who held senior positions or increasingly responsible positions with their companies and associations; those who developed or instituted processes, procedures or campaigns that contributed to the growth and productivity of their companies or associations, or similar situations. Other qualifying examples would include inventors, scientists and engineers, marketers, and content providers who invented or developed significant technology advances, launched new networks and founded trade and/or consumer outreach programs.

Part C (Continued). - Candidate's Qualifications For Induction

2. Leadership:

Has the candidate held leadership positions in industry-related groups?

We're looking for candidates who have stepped up within these groups, for example, to volunteer their services as a leader, board member, committee member, panel participant, program judge, guest writer or guest speaker. Wide latitude here on group types, including groups such as NAMIC, NCTA, CABLELABS, SCTE, WICT, NATPE, IAB, PROMAX, PACE, CTAM, ACA Connects, NCTC, among many others.

3. Beyond Cable:

Has the candidate held leadership positions in groups outside the cable industry?

Has the candidate shown a commitment and exhibited their volunteer/pioneering spirit and leadership skills in local, community, regional and /or national associations and organizations outside of our business? (Wide latitude here, from the Girl and Boy Scouts, United Way and the Red Cross to religious, political, non-profit and educational, alumni, scholarships, to philanthropic initiatives.)

4. Go The Extra Mile:

Has the candidate demonstrated a willingness to "go the extra mile?"

For example, a candidate who develops and participates regularly in a mentoring program or who organized/created an outreach program to help others overcome a career, personal or family challenge, or who has initiated a social program or meeting to encourage friendship or community involvement would earn points. We're looking for "something special" – almost any inside and/or outside activities like online tutoring programs, mentoring programs, sports coaching starting or volunteering for food drives could contribute to the total.

Part D. - Certification Of Eligibility

Membership in the Cable TV Pioneers is a privilege that is reserved for those who contribute to the development and growth of our industry, live a life of service and achievement, and who recognize the honor of being inducted into this special club. Candidates who are nominated should be willing to actively participate in the Cable TV Pioneers, which includes an annual payment of its modest dues, attending its events whenever possible and supporting the organization's initiatives. As sponsors, you acknowledge and agree that your candidate understands the expectations of membership and in your estimation will be pleased to become an active member.

Sponsor Information

We hereby submit this completed application, initiation fee and candidate color photograph. Also, we certify that we are qualified as a sponsor or co-sponsor, having been inducted three or more years ago, and we are current in our Pioneer dues.
